

HJ Andrews Experimental Forest 11th LTER Symposium

Networks and Synthesis

9 AM - 3 PM, Tuesday, April 20th, 2010

Memorial Union, Oregon State University
Campus

The symposium is hosted by the Andrews Forest LTER.
The event is free and open to the public; registration is required.

ALL ARE WELCOME

AGENDA:

AM session - OSU Memorial Union Joyce Powell Leadership Center

9:00 - 9:15	Welcome and introductions. Networking at the Andrews Forest. Julia Jones, Professor, Geosciences
9:15 - 9:30	Network Level Experiments: Past Successes, Ongoing Efforts, and Future Prospects. Mark Harmon, Richardson Chair and Professor, Forest Ecosystems and Society.
9:30 - 9:45	Maps and Locals: (MALs): A Cross-Site LTER Comparative Study of Land-Cover and Land-Use Change with Spatial Analysis and Local Ecological Knowledge. Denise Lach, Associate Professor, Sociology
9:45 - 10:00	Emerging Humanities/Arts Connections. Fred Swanson, Research Geologist, USFS PNW
10:00 - 10:15	LTERMaps: An Internet Mapping Interface for LTER Site Information. Theresa Valentine, USFS PNW
10:15 - 10:30	Educational Networking: Building LTER Extension Links to Broaden the Impacts of Research. Brad Withrow-Robinson, OSU Extension.
10:30 - 10:45	Break

10:45 - 11:00	Synthesis of Long-Term, Cross-site Data and the Value of Database Harvesters. Sherri Johnson, Research Ecologist, USFS PNW
11:00 - 11:15	The Nutrient Network: Exploring Nutrient Limitations on Grasslands at Home and Abroad. Lydia Ries O'Halloran, Forest Ecosystems and Society
11:15 - 11:30	Challenges and Opportunities for Future Research and Collaborations. Tom Spies, Research Forester and Team Leader, USFS PNW
11:30 - 11:45	Questions and Discussion. Moderated by Tom Spies and Julia Jones.
11:45 - Noon	Wrap up. Julia Jones.

Poster session and Lunch - Memorial Union Room 109

Noon - 3 PM Posters: Recent findings and current research. Open poster session for research from Andrews Forest Program